Other documents you may receive

You may also receive other documents when we provide services or products to you:

- Statement of Advice (SoA) – this is a record of personal advice provided to you. Personal advice is advice that takes into account any one or more of your objectives, financial situation and needs. The SoA will contain the advice, the basis on which the advice is given and information about fees and commissions, as well as details of any potential conflicts of interest. You will receive a SoA when personal advice is given to you, except where the advice relates to deposit, payment or general insurance products.
- Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) – this will be provided to you if we recommend, arrange, issue or offer to issue certain financial products to you. So you can decide whether or not to acquire the financial product, the PDS sets out the key features, significant benefits, risks, fees and charges associated with the financial product.
- Terms & Conditions (T&Cs)/Product Guides (PGs) – these will be provided to you if we recommend, arrange, issue or offer to issue our basic deposit products to you. Similar to the PDS, the T&C’s/PG’s set out the key terms, features, fees and charges associated with the product.

In relation to the services that we provide to you, we are also authorised by a number of other financial product providers to distribute their financial products and we may receive payments from other sources such as product issuers. In some cases payments made to Adelaide Bank are shared with mortgage manager partners. Payments are paid monthly to the mortgage manager's account.

Insurance products

Commissions are included in the amount you pay for the product and the rate depends on the particular type of product you purchase.

Insurance products sold by us are issued by Insurance Australia Limited ABN 11 000 016 722 AFSL 227681.

Commissions for insurance products are paid to us on a monthly or annual basis depending on the payment method chosen.

For travel insurance, the commission is up to 25% of the total base premium.¹

For general insurance products, the commission is up to 21% of the annual base premium.²

In all cases, the commission is based on the premium before the addition of government charges.

For example, if the premium for your house and contents policy is $700 (before the addition of government charges), Bendigo and Adelaide Bank would receive a commission of up to $147.00.

Importantly, these commissions (and the other benefits referred to below) are not charged directly to you. Rather they are paid from the product fees applicable to the financial product you acquire.

² "annual base premium" means the amount charged to the customer for an insurance product by the insurer for a twelve month period (net of administration fees, compulsory Government charges including stamp duty, GST and any applicable levies).

¹ "total base premium" means the amount charged to a customer for an insurance product by the insurer for the period of coverage selected (excluding compulsory Government charges, including stamp duty, GST and any applicable levies).

Insurance products – other benefits

Bendigo and Adelaide Bank may receive other benefits on the sale of certain products. These benefits may take various forms including:

- an annual bonus payment under an arrangement with Insurance Australia Limited which is dependent upon Bendigo and Adelaide Bank's account meeting certain performance criteria over a specific period;
- an ongoing payment under an arrangement with Insurance Australia Limited to contribute to the administration costs of Bendigo and Adelaide Bank distributing general insurance products;
- an annual marketing allowance from Insurance Australia Limited to conduct marketing campaigns.

Personal advice

If you receive personal financial product advice, you will be provided with a SoA which includes any remuneration and other benefits (where possible in actual dollar amounts). However, for personal advice, in relation to deposit, payment, and general insurance products, this information will be included in another communication. If the exact amount of remuneration is not known at the time you are given the SoA or other communication, the manner in which the remuneration (including commission) and any other benefits is to be calculated will be described instead.

Referrals

If you have been referred to us by someone else, we may pay that person remuneration (including commission) or other benefits (which may be a fixed amount or up to 0.85% per annum of the amount you have invested or calculated on some other basis).

- Deposit products and non-cash payment facilities.
- Bendigo and Adelaide Bank also provides and may charge fees for legal and other professional services to superannuation or managed investment funds of which Bendigo Superannuation or Sandhurst Trustees Limited are the product issuers. You may request particulars of the fee structure within a reasonable time of receiving this FSG and before any financial service identified in this FSG is provided to you.

Remuneration received by other Group companies for products issued by them

If you acquire a product issued by a company in the Group, the relevant company may receive product fees in relation to that product, including commission, referral fees, entry fees, management fees, exit fees and any other fees specified in the PDS, T&Cs, PGs or other disclosure document for that particular product. These product fees may ultimately benefit other Group members or associates.
